Proposed Scenario

Day 1: Siem Reap arrival

Group arrival in the afternoon at Siem Reap international airport by flight (TBA) from Bangkok.

Option: VIP immigration passage – our support staff will assist with all visa procedures and customs clearance.

Option: welcome by Khmer hostesses at the terminal exit who will offer a traditional silk Krama to every attendees.

Option: professional photographer for arrival coverage (including post production and distribution).

Option: welcome banner at the airport or at the hotel.

Option: police escort from the airport to the hotel.

Guides and support staff will be available to assist guests with luggage, which will be collected and transferred in a separate truck to the hotel. Transfer to the hotel by deluxe coaches. Every attendee will be offered a special welcome drink on arrival. Check-in to assigned room will be done in advance by the hotel. End of the afternoon free at leisure to freshen up in the rooms.

Option: pillow gift in the room (head of King Jayavarman VII wrap in cotton Krama and banana leaf box).

Dinner will be served at the hotel.

Overnight at Shinta Mani Resort, in Siem Reap.

Day 2: Siem Reap (morning)

Buffet breakfast served at the hotel.

This morning the participants will discover the real Cambodian countryside and head to the village of Roluos. Roluos was the first town created by the kings of Cambodia, and the first edifices built here were the temples of Lolei and Preah Ko.

Option: This morning we head towards the small village of Roluos and leave the crowds behind with our bicycles.

Option: Enjoy a coffee break with canapés in a local Khmer village after bike tour.

The second temple is the Bakong temple, built in 881 AD. This was the state temple and also the largest of the city. The temple is the representation of the Mount Meru, home of the Khmer Gods.

Then the participants will hop onboard Ox Carts (the ancestral way of transportation in Cambodia) to continue the journey through the countryside. This ride will take about 30 minutes and will allow you to discover beautiful landscapes and the real life of the Cambodian people.

Lunch will be served at Viroth's restaurant.

Option: exceptional catering lunch prepared in a local Khmer house.

Day 2: Siem Reap (afternoon)

This afternoon you will depart to the largest religious monument in the world, the magnificent Angkor Wat. Built during the reign of mighty King Suryavarman II in the early 12th century, Angkor Wat is constructed following the model of the Angkor mountain temples which symbolize the Mount Meru, home of Gods. Inside the temple, the walls are covered with stone carvings and stunning bas-reliefs depicting the legendary Hindu mythology.

Enjoy a refreshing cocktail with delicious canapé selection at Angkor Café restaurant located in front of Angkor Wat temple.

The participants will return to Siem Reap town and their hotel after the visit and will have the rest of the day free at leisure.

Dinner will be served at The Square 24 restaurant.

Overnight at Shinta Mani Resort, in Siem Reap.

Day 3: Siem Reap (morning)

Buffet breakfast served at the hotel.

In the morning, the group will depart by Remork (2 persons per vehicle) to discover the Great City of Angkor Thom, the last Capital of the Great Khmer Empire under the reign of legendary King Jayavarman VII. This stunning archeological city is surrounded by an 8m high enclosure wall drawing a perfect square. Enter the city through the ancient South Gate, an impressive stone gate carved with elephants and four giant faces. On each side of the entrance path a row of 54 Gods and Demons is holding a sacred Naga snake.

Option: a refreshing break with soft drinks and juices will be proposed by your Remork drivers within the temple area.

From here, continue to Bayon Temple in the exact center of the city. This 12th century masterpiece is a study in grandeur and is well-known for its 54 towers with enigmatic faces representing the 54 provinces of the Great Khmer Empire. You will also discover this morning the Elephant Terrace, the Leper King Terrace, the former Royal Palace Phimeanakas, and the Baphuon temple.

Lunch will be served at Fou Nan restaurant.

Option: BBQ lunch will be served at Prasat Bei temple.

Day 3: Siem Reap (afternoon)

This afternoon get amazed by the exploration of the enigmatic and legendary Ta Prohm monastery. This is the jungle overgrown temple which has been featured in several Hollywood movies, such as Tomb Raider with the super movie-star Angelina Jolie or Two Brothers from French director Jean-Jacques Annaud. The large fig trees have merged with the ancient stones and have been left untouched by conservationists; feel like Indiana Jones or Lara Croft when entering the sanctuary.

You will return to Siem Reap town at the end of this afternoon visit and will have some free time in the city's old markets before return to the hotel.

In the evening transfer for Gala Dinner at Thommanon Temple. Enjoy dinner in the soumptous temples of the Archeological park, lighten especially for you, a unique experience.

Overnight at Shinta Mani Resort, in Siem Reap.

Day 3: Siem Reap (morning)

Buffet breakfast served at the hotel.

This morning visit Artisans d'Angkor. Established in 1992 in order to support Cambodian arts and crafts and to help young people find work in their local villages by continuing the practice of traditional arts. Among the workshops available for visit are wood and stone carving, wood and stone lacquering, gilding, and silk processing.

You will drive towards the Tonle Sap Lake. Cambodia's great Lake is the most prominent feature on the map of Cambodia and one of the largest freshwater lake in Asia, swelling to an expansive 12,000 km². During the dry half of year, the Lake shrink to as small as 2500 km².

Upon arrival at the pier, the group will embark on a wooden boat for a visit of the floating villages. Chong Khneas is one of the floating villages at the edge of the lake and one of the most accessible from Siem Reap. The group can depart by boat docks all day long. The boatman will probably point out the different Khmer and Vietnamese floating households, markets, clinics or schools.

Option: take the paddle boat to visit the amazing mangrove forest of Tonle Sap lake in the village.

Lunch will be served at Champey restaurant.

Option: enjoy an exotic catering lunch in one of the floating village houses.

Day 3: Siem Reap departure

This afternoon you will be free at leisure for market tour.

Option: Flight of the Gibbon

Our zipline tours are unique and feature a combination of tree houses, platforms, cables, sky bridges and abseils, enabling each guest to view jungle life from all layers of the jungle canopy, a perspective previously reserved for a select group of researchers inside Angkor Archeological Park.

Option: indulge yourself with a absolute sensory experience at the finest Spa center in Siem Reap: Bodia Spa. Different massage packages and beauty treatments will be proposed to the guests, from the 1 hour session to the full morning one.

the group will gather in the lobby where all baggage will be identified by the participants and picked-up by our staff before being transferred to the airport in a separate luggage truck.

Luggage down and group check-out at the hotel.

Dinner will be served at Nest Angkor restaurant.

Transfer to Siem Reap international airport for your onward flight (to be advised).

End of our services in Cambodia.

Appendix 2
Selected restaurants & Gala dinners

VIROTH'S RESTAURANT

Viroth's Restaurant boasts a sleek and stylish interior. The restaurant serves very tasty traditional Khmer cuisine. The amok fish is a perfect blend of coconut milk and lemon grass and, unlike at other restaurants, the fish is completely deboned.

Spot on service in a stylish terrace garden setting with both covered and open-air seating available. The spacious dining area is set on a raised wooden platform and is flanked on one side by a wall of bamboo rods. Ceiling and floor fans keep a cool breeze going and send ripples through the strips of sheer saffron sheets suspended from the ceiling and hanging between tables.

THE SQUARE 24 RESTAURANT

Liberal and fantastically interpreting Khmer new modern dining experience, where sounds and flavors of Cambodia will inspire your discerning palate. With the Chef's flair and passion plus the freshest ingredients you will discover authentic local recipes.

The Square 24 is available for lunch and dinner. A brilliant bite in style just 5 minutes leisurely walk from the central market and pub street.

FOU NAN RESTAURANT

The Fou Nan is a stunning restaurant and lounge-bar nestled in a lush garden. Named after the oldest and most influential Empire of the country, the Fou-Nan is a select and multi-functional restaurant situated in the tranquility of a tropical garden. Imagine a place dedicated exclusively to gastronomy and to the Khmer culture, a place of discovery inspired as much by ancestral culinary traditions as by contemporary "fusion" trends.

DINNER AT THOMMANON

Early evening transfer to an inspiring Gala Dinner. The drive will lead through the Angkor complex all the way to the beautiful Thommanon temple.

You will be welcomed with refreshments and cocktails served with canapés, and your entrée will be accompanied by dancers who recreate the atmosphere of the ancient Angkor Kingdom. The dinner is set open air and is illuminated by candle lights, with the beautifully lit temple as a spectacular backdrop. A cultural music and dance performance will accompany your three-course meal, and Apsaras will appear for a dance.

CHAMPEY RESTAURANT

Located in the heart of the former French quarter between the Old Market and the well know Pub Street, Champey is one of the most renowned restaurants in town.

The menu is richly flavoured including some wonderful curries prepared in the “ancestral way” by the dedicated Chef Miss Kim San. Champey prides itself of excluding MSG from its kitchen, and all meals are free from this culinary menace. The clean tasting food is as refreshing as the enormous smiles on its very friendly local staff serving the two ends of this charming restaurant. One facing a small and bustling alley, whilst the other end faces the Old Market.

THE NEST ANGKOR CAFÉ

Nest is an uncluttered restaurant/cocktail bar and Lounge in the Siem Reap city center.

As you stroll along fountains and a Zen garden, bamboo sofas and four-poster couches are awaiting a few steps away. Recline and repose under contemporary white canvas sails, comfy loungers, and day beds in the exterior garden terrace.

Beverage and food menus are an artist's masterpiece and list down gastronomical delicacies and a creative sophisticated cuisine.
